The Problem with Saying "Good Luck"

What do you mean when you say "Good luck"? What is your intent? Are you saying "I hope that random chance events outside of everyone's, including God's control will turn out for your benefit"? That is what you imply when you say "Good luck."

5 Things That Are Not Left to Luck

1. Little things, like food for birds, Matt 10:29-31
 2. Random things- the roll of the dice, Prov 16:33
 3. Powerful things-those who control us, Prov 21:1
 4. Bad things- for our good, Gen. 50:20
 5. Good things- every good gift, James 1:17
- Luck isn't real. God is real. Let's honor God with our words. Instead of saying "Good luck" either say, "May God bless you" or "I hope all goes well for you." Both will honor God. Saying "Good luck" doesn't. (Pastor Ward Cushman, M. Div.,)
