From Pastor Justin

Many believers isolate worship to activities during a Sunday or Wednesday church service. Some limit the expression of worship to musical activities. However, worship is not a single, weekly event that happens at a place. The Bible teaches us that the definition of worship is much bigger & broader.

The word "worship" comes from an old English word woerthscipe meaning "to ascribe worth, reverence & honor." Worship is an outward response of an adoring & reverent heart to the magnificence of God. Worship begins inwardly but is expressed outwardly in a number of ways: Moses hid his face (Exodus 3), David danced (2 Samuel 6), the Wisemen bowed (Matthew 2).

In John 4, Jesus speaks about worship while interacting with the woman at the well. First, worship is not isolated to a place (v. 20-21). Samaritans believed Mt. Gerizim was the only proper place to worship, while Jews believed Jerusalem was. Jesus said a time is coming when worship would not happen at either. Paul explains in 1 Corinthians 3:16-17 the Holy Spirit dwells within believers, not in buildings. In Romans 12:1-2, Paul also explains God desires worship in the true temple...the believer's body.

Second, Jesus explains proper worship requires knowledge of God's truth...His Word (v. 22). There are 2 worship extremes that exist in churches today: Truth and no Spirit... Spirit and no Truth. To ascribe worth to God in a proper way, we must understand the worth of God's person, position & character as revealed in His Word.

Third, worship is characterized by a lifestyle that reflects an adoring, reverent heart on-mission with God (v. 23-24). Outward, religious rituals & ceremonies fall short. God desires we worship Him in spirit & in truth...inward love & reverence coupled with outward expressions & responses to the magnificence of God.
