

REMNANT OF GRACE
THE NEWSLETTER OF FORBUSH BAPTIST CHURCH
3917 Old US 421 Hwy E, Yadkinville, NC 27055
September 4, 2018
Volume XI, Issue 18

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. (1 Corinthians 15:58)

In the last newsletter, I discussed how Satan discourages believers from serving the Lord. Satan doesn't want believers to grow spiritually or to tell others about Jesus. Satan will do everything he can to hinder us from doing these things.

When it comes to telling others about Jesus, God doesn't call us to produce results. God calls us to be faithful servants...faithful messengers of Good News. It can be discouraging to share the Gospel with countless individuals & rarely see a response. However, we need to consider what Jesus says in John 4:35-38. In verses 37-38, Jesus says, "For in this the saying is true: 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labors."

When we share the Gospel with others, we might be sowing seeds. At other times, we might be reaping the harvest. In either case, we are still being faithful servants. Whether we sow or reap, our labor in the Lord's work is never in vain! We will reap according to God's timing & will if we do not lose heart (Galatians 6:9). Be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Lord's work. Your labor is never in vain!

Popular columnist Sharon Randall comes to Centenary United Methodist Church, located at 646 W. 5th Street in Winston-Salem, on Thursday, September 13 at 7pm. The program, "An Evening on the Front Porch," will be in the Sanctuary as Sharon speaks and offers a time of questions and answers.

Sharon is an award-winning syndicated columnist whose work has been distributed to more than 400 newspapers and an estimated 6 million readers nationwide. She writes a personal column about "everyday people and ordinary things."

Born and raised in the Blue Ridge Mountains of North and South Carolina, Randall lived for 35 years in California where she raised three children and was a self-described "full-time homemaker, Sunday School teacher, Little League scorer, and PTA volunteer."

For tickets, contact Ramona Trivette by September 5th. The bus will leave Forbush Baptist at 4:30 on 9-13-18 with a stop at Dairy-O's for supper. Tickets are $25.
