In John 8, a woman was caught in the act of adultery. The self-righteous Scribes & Pharisees bring her before Jesus ready to stone her. As they persist, Jesus stands up & tells them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw a stone at her first." In the next few moments, something incredible happens. Hearts are convicted & stones fall. Her accusers vanish! The woman surely expects to be condemned. However, Jesus tells the woman, "Neither do I condemn you; go and sin no more."

A self-righteous attitude focuses on personal effort & achievement. It forgets we are all sinners in need of a Savior. Rather than offering support & guidance, it looks down on those struggling in sin & condemns them. But God's grace says otherwise. What if we loved sinners as Jesus did?

ARE YOU compelled by love?

Being compelled by Christ's love involves showing and sharing the love of Jesus with those in our communities and around the world. As we reflect upon what Christ has done for us, may we work together to heal the brokenness in our state, nation and world by proclaiming the gospel as we minister to others.
