I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world." -John 16:33 (NKJV)

To God, sin is sin...period. One sin is just as bad as any other. Sin is not just external, immoral behavior. In fact, external sin is often a manifestation of preexisting, internal sin. We worry about a variety of things. Often, it's things we can't possibly control or haven't even happened yet. Worry is a sin that's often swept under the rug. However, it's also an indicator of where each of us are spiritually. Why is worry sin? God tells us to trust Him & disobedience is sin. Worry is unbelief on display. It reveals an internal rejection of God's sovereignty, wisdom & love for us. But Jesus reminds to trust Him. He is in full control & bigger than anything we face, even COVID-19 & an upcoming election.
