"Therefore I run thus: not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air. But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified." -1 Corinthians 9:25-27 (NKJV)

All good athletes discipline themselves to be successful. They are purposeful in what they eat, their workout routine & their lifestyle in general. They remain faithful to those disciplines in order to stay on top of their game. This is also true for believers. The way we live & our public testimony matters. We must remain spiritually disciplined if we want to live a successful Christian life & stay sharp. We must be faithful to personal worship, prayer, telling others about Jesus, serving in our local church, Bible study & spiritual growth. Like athletes, lack of discipline only sets us up for spiritual failure.
